

Di Lemma plays in the park

Hi everyone, I am off to play in the park today with my friends. Luckily it's sunny outside. Come and see what I get up to.

Di Lemma shouted “Bye” to his mum as he ran down the garden path to meet his friend. He was going to play at the park across the road from his house. Di Lemma was going to play with his friends Jake and Jane. They got to the road before the park and Jake went to run because he was so excited. Di Lemma shouted “Jake watch out!” Jake skidded on his shoes and stopped just as a big car drove passed.

What should Jake have done?

Di Lemma told Jake off, he spoke to Jake about how important it was to find a safe place to cross the road, look both ways and keep looking and listening as he crossed.

Di Lemma, Jake and Jane crossed the road safely and got into the park. Jake ran straight for the swing. Di Lemma followed and so did Jane. They all jumped on and started to swing. “Let’s see who can go the highest said Jane” “ok” cheered Jake and Di Lemma. They swung and swung and swung Di Lemma definitely thought he had gone the highest but Jake said it was definitely him. They got a bit bored of the swings so they moved onto the roundabout. Jake sat on it and Di Lemma and Jane pushed him “Faster, faster” Jake shouted. They pushed and pushed but suddenly Jake came flying off. He lay on the ground grabbing hold of his knee; he was crying “Ow ow ow ow.” Di Lemma and Jane ran over to him. Jake’s knee was all grazed. Di Lemma said “it’s ok I’ll run and get my mum.”

Di Lemma sprinted off across the field. A man stopped him on the way and asked him what the hurry was. Di Lemma told him his friend had hurt his knee. The man said “I can give you a lift home, if you like, to get your mum”. Di Lemma said “No thanks” because he didn’t know the man and he wasn’t allowed to talk to strangers.

Did Di Lemma do the right thing?

Di Lemma came to the road before his house. He stopped to cross it. He thought it would be quicker if he had his keys ready to get in the house. He pulled them out of his pocket and held them in his hand. He crossed the road safely and started to run again, Di Lemma tripped on a pavement; he fell and landed on the grass so he didn't hurt himself. Luckily his keys got thrown out of his hand when he fell.

What could have happened if Di Lemma fell on his keys?

Di Lemma thought to himself "I know not to run with sharp objects, that was really silly of me I could have really hurt myself."

Di Lemma ran up his garden path into his house and shouted for his mum to come and help. His mum went with Di Lemma to the park, got Jake and took him home. She put a really big blue plaster on Jake's knee. Jake told everyone that the roundabout was going so so so so so fast he couldn't hold on any long. Di Lemma knew it wasn't going that fast, but he let Jake have his showing off moment.

If they had been going really really fast what could have happened to Jake?

But Di Lemma did think if they had been going as fast as Jake said they were Jake could have broken a bone or been more seriously hurt.

Di Lemma says he hopes you enjoyed his adventure at the park.

Bye till next time....
