

Teaching Intentions	Students will learn About what is meant by the term 'Consumer' About the basic rights and responsibilities that a Consumer has About consumer rights when shopping About consumer responsibilities when shopping
Starter	Discuss teaching intentions Consumer game Discuss the fact everybody is a consumer
Main Session	If Things Go Wrong game Discuss the fact everybody has rights Discuss the traders responsibilities if things go wrong Discuss the consumers responsibilities in buying certain goods e.g. age restricted goods Student handout- Di Lemma makes a complaint
Resources and Materials	Consumer game If Things Go Wrong game Student handout- Di Lemma makes a complaint Teaching notes
National Curriculum
PSHE	4(g)(h)
Citizenship	1(a)(e)(h) 2(b) (c)
Differentiation	All students must: be able to recognise they are consumers who buy goods and services Most students should: be able to recognise the importance of consumer rights and responsibilities Some students will: understand some of their consumer rights and responsibilities
Assessment	Class discussions Students questions/answers Consumer game If Things Go Wrong game Student handout- Di Lemma makes a complaint